

TILTON SCHOOL

Igniting a passion for lifelong learning

College Counselor / Assistant Director of College Counseling
For 2019-20 Academic Year
(full-time, school-year position)

Tilton School seeks an energetic College Counselor for a school-year full-time position, preferably with two to three years of experience in an independent school or college setting. Successful candidates will model and engender within students a deep commitment to self-discovery and mastery of the School's primary essential skills of communication, critical thinking, creativity, design thinking, and mindfulness. This professional serves as a resource for advisors, coaches, parents, and students on college matters. Reports to the Director of College Counseling.

Preference will be given to candidates who have

- Two to three years of experience in an independent school or college setting
- Advanced degree or certifications in school counseling or related fields
- Outstanding skills in oral and written communication
- Interest in the future of College Admissions as it relates to the work with the Mastery Transcript Consortium
- Experience with online platforms, like SCOIR, and standardized test administration (SAT/ACT)
- Ability to work well in a fast-paced, residential school setting with a deep commitment to student engagement and development
