Annual Meeting & Conference, Liz van Luling (2025 AMC Chair) - Multiple
Volunteer Position Description - Member

Committee Name: Annual Meeting & Conference

Position Title: AMC Planning Committee Member

Number of position(s) available: Multiple positions available across different subcommittees for planning the Annual Meeting & Conference

Job responsibilities and activities:

The AMC Planning Committee is typically composed of 1-2 subcommittee area leaders and 1-6 committee members who work under those specific areas for conference planning. All committee volunteers are exposed to work across several areas and are expected to support the 2025 Annual Meeting & Conference on-site at the conference.

The subcommittees may include...

- Educational Programming
- Marketing & Communications
- Preconference Offerings
- Professional & Career Resources
- Social Programming
- Sponsorship & Fundraising
- Welcoming & Registration

Desired Professional Level: Open to all levels of experience!

Application deadline: Friday, July 12 2024

Qualifications for position: Member of NEACAC

Time requirement: 1-5 hours a month, attendance at 2 to 4 planning meetings (9am-3pm), and attendance at AMC

Proposed starting date and end date: August 2024-May 2025

Travel Commitment (in-person meetings and locations): Subcommittee leads should anticipate 4 main meetings (in person or virtual potentially) as well as ongoing monthly check-in with the AMC Conference Chair to report on their committee's efforts.

- General committee volunteers are expected to attend 2 in-person meetings at the 2025 conference host institution (likely mid-November and early May). Each subcommittee lead will set the expectation for ongoing committee virtual check-ins depending on the conference area that they are planning.

Reporting supervisor: Liz van Luling (2025 AMC Chair)
Volunteer Position Description- Member

Position Title: Member

Committee Name: IDEA (Inclusion, Diversity, Education, and Access)

Number of position(s) available: Multiple member positions available on all teams

Job responsibilities and activities: The IDEA Committee serves as the communicator, spokesperson, and advocate for personal and cultural issues affecting our profession, and the health and wellness of our membership. We currently operate using a subcommittee model. Subcommittees include:

- Annual Meeting & Conference Session Proposal
- College Corps New England
- Essay Writing Contest
- Inclusive Policies and Practices
- Make a Difference Fund
- Margaret Addis Memorial Scholar Program

Members will be assigned to one or more subcommittees and will have responsibilities related to the work of that subcommittee throughout the year. In addition, members will be regularly called upon to volunteer for ad hoc initiatives, such as NEACAC Community Conversations.

Desired Professional Level: Entry, mid, or senior level

Application deadline: Applications accepted on an ongoing basis. Apply by August 1 to begin your committee work at the start of the committee’s annual cycle (August 15).

Qualifications for position: The IDEA Committee strives to be a catalyst - heightening awareness, consciousness, and sensitivity to the issues of culture, ethnicity, socio-economic status, human rights, gender, sexual orientation, age, and other differences.

Applicants (limited to current NEACAC members) must have a passion for and familiarity with diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) topics, either through lived experience or through steady and active work to grow in their understanding of DEI topics. While this is a committee where much will be learned, it is not specifically an avenue for learning. If you are at the beginning stages of your own journey and are seeking learning opportunities, please participate in IDEA-sponsored NEACAC programming and take advantage of the resources released by the IDEA committee via the monthly newsletter and social media.

Time requirement: Varies based on subcommittee assignment. Members can choose a subcommittee based on what works best for their availability.

Proposed starting date and end date: You may begin volunteering at any time. Members will be asked every August if they would like to remain on the committee.

Travel Commitment (in-person meetings and locations): The IDEA committee typically has one, official in-person meeting in the winter. When possible, we will gather informally in the spring at the Annual
